

THE UMATILLA INDIAN RESERVATION

Open to the Public April 1.

Homes for the Thousands at Moderate Cost. Adjoining the City of PENDLETON.

The city of Pendleton offers greater inducements at the present time for the investment of capital than any place in the Pacific Northwest. Aside from throwing upon the market 140,000 acres of fine land, there will be $400,000 invested in many manufacturing establishments, which will be in operation within the next eighteen months. An irrigation ditch, involving an outlay of three-quarters of a million dollars, is in process of construction, which will increase the taxable property of Umatilla county $2,000,000.

140,000 ACRES

Of Rich Farming Lands, Grazing Lands, Timber Lands, to be Sold at Public Auction at Pendleton, Or., Commencing April 1.

In addition to the lands opened for settlement by the opening of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, a large portion of the forfeited Northern Pacific Railroad Grants, lying adjacent to Pendleton, is now open to settlement and purchase. These lands are all extremely fertile, and are well adapted for agricultural, horticultural and grazing purposes. This is the greatest opportunity to be found in the United States to secure a home in a rich farming center at small cost, and every one with an eye to his future welfare should endeavor to take advantage of this chance of a lifetime.

OGDEN CITY, UTAH.

WEDNESDAY, March 25, 1891.

General Cleanings.

The sewer ditches are now all pretty well filled up.
The Central labor union held its regular meeting last night.
Prof. Thornberg has sold his interest in the dancing academy.
W. C. Warren will arrive home from his European trip next Monday.
Percival J. Barratt is able to be out again after an illness of several weeks.

Cleveland's consolidated minstrels are booked for the Grand Friday night.

The dome of the Grand opera house was being re-coated with paint yesterday.

R. C. Stout, of the Stevens Rubber Hose company, left for Chicago last evening.

It is reported that work will begin soon on the Henderson electric street railway.

The contractors expect to have the new sewers completed by the last of the week.

Superintendent Wurtelle, of the Wyoming division of the Union Pacific, was in the city yesterday.

P. B. Casey, the rustling produce man of Brigham City, made a flying trip to the junction city yesterday.

The Knights of Pythias lodges of this city will hold a basket social in their hall next Tuesday evening.

The members of the Knights of Pythias will attend earlier services at the Church of the Good Shepherd next Sunday evening.

"A Social Session" will be presented to the people of Ogden to night at the Grand opera house. Manager Bowes states that the advance sale of seats is large.

A private telegram was received in this city from Cheyenne yesterday, announcing the death of A. C. Snyder. Mr. Snyder was formerly in the real estate business with E. A. Reed in this city.

Union Pacific engine No. 892 was derailed by the spreading of the tracks at a switch in front of the Union depot yesterday afternoon. With the aid of a switch engine, blocks and chains the locomotive was returned to its proper position. Only slight damage was done.

Sanitary Inspector Lewis is daily looking after the health of the city. Yesterday morning he found the basement of a building in a little shed annexed to the building known as the depot saloon, which were gathered in by a negro and a Japanese who reside in that locality. The inspector says that amongst the tags was a large drove of four-legged traveling population. He gave the owners notice that unless the place was cleaned out within twenty-four hours and thoroughly renovated, he would have the law deal severely with them.

The Real Estate Exchange.

The Ogden real estate exchange met at the usual hour yesterday, with Judge A. B. Patton in the chair. The attendance was large, but no business of importance was transacted.

The following offers were posted for the day:

$x10 rods on Quincy, north of Twenty-fourth; $475 per rod.

Lot 30, block 1, Riverside addition, four-room frame house, $1,450 cash; $5,000.

For to-day only, one lot, new frame house, bath, completely plumbed, boiler, etc., on Van Buren, north Twenty-sixth, $500 cash, balance $2,500 per month; $21,000.

2x7 rods, seven-room house, rents for $25 per month, near Adams on the bench, half cash, balance 60 cents per annum, monthly payments, $1,500.

The only want recorded was 100x132 feet between Twenty-third and Twenty-sixth streets, Monroe and Twenty-ninth avenues, one-third cash, balance one and two years.

Several of the offers previously posted were reported covered.

Police Court.

Business was rather quiet in police circles yesterday. However, Justice C. B. Pash had occasion to pay his respects to the following subjects:

A. B. Fancey, arrested on the charge of petit larceny, was taken to the extent of $25 and costs.

Ed Rogers, disturbing the peace, $5 and costs.

J. Reding, gathered in for using abusive language too freely, was fined $5 and costs.

The Boys in Blue.

Three carloads of recruits, numbering fifty-five in all, arrived over the Union Pacific yesterday from Jefferson barracks, Missouri. They are under the command of Lieutenant Hervey and are being transported to the First Infantry at Angel Island, off San Francisco. The recruits are masterly cavalrymen.

Red Rock Reached.

The huge drill at the Ogden gas and oil well is fast descending into the bowels of the earth. Manager Goodrich has had hopes of striking bed rock for several months, but not until night before last did his wishes become reality.

The drill was down 571 feet last evening. The rock seems to be black granite, and Mr. Goodrich says there are splendid indications that natural gas will soon be reached.

In the District Court.

Judge James A. Miner made disposal of the following business in the First district court yesterday:

United States vs. Melinda Hall: M. V. Gilbert was appointed attorney for defendant; plea, not guilty on the charge of fornication.

Z. L. Kay vs. J. F. Collins: order for judgment in the plaintiff's favor in accordance with the prayer of complaint.

United States vs. C. J. Rowher: Smith & Smith entered their appearance for defendant and made a plea of not guilty.

S. E. Belcher vs. James Iverson, exception to granting to entering up judgment; order granting thirty days to defendant to serve and file statement on motion for a new trial.

A. H. Wilson vs. James Cassin: order allowing plaintiff to file an amended complaint.

William Hewitt et al. vs. Union Pacific Railway company; on trial. In the above case the plaintiffs sued for $10,000 damages for the killing of their mother last fall by a Hot Springs bathing train. Mrs. Hewitt lived with her son northwest of the city, and on the day of her death she came to

OGDEN TO DO SOME TRADING.

After procuring the things wanted she started to return, and followed the Utah & Northern tracks, as the wagon roads were extremely dusty and disagreeable. When about a mile and a half out of the city, the lady was struck by the locomotive and killed almost instantly. At 7 o'clock last evening the jury was still out.

Anderson Pressed Brick company vs. N. C. Chapman; on motion of Kimball & Allison, order granting plaintiff ten days further time to answer cross-complaint.

First National Bank of Halley vs. H. D. Lewis et al.; on motion of Kimball & Allison, order granting defendant ten days further time to answer complaint.

LOGAN NEWS.

J. G. & E. S. KIMBALL, Agents.

LOGAN, March 24, 1891.

A Baseball League.

There is no reason why a baseball league should not be organized in Utah, nor why this city should not furnish an efficient club to form the northern end of the organization. Were all the larger cities of the territory to organize a club and arrange a ball ground where an admission fee could be charged, the people would soon become educated to the glories of the great national game.

Parlors Piled.

Officers McCullough and A. D. Thatcher detected three individuals who have been in town but a few days, stealing goods from the Third Street Chinamen. It seems that the culprits went into the shop late Saturday night, ostensibly to pay a bill one of them was owing, and while he engaged the celestial on one side, his companions took occasion to put a number of silk handkerchiefs and other articles into their pockets, across the opposite counter. They were arrested, but released to appear yesterday.

During Sunday they got full to vary the monotony of their lives, and were arrested again. Yesterday they were each fined on both charges.

They are harness makers and recently found employment here.

The Young Buffalo Bill.

Pete Fjeldsted, the boy who acted as leader in the recent burglarizing of the Preston co-op, and who has been prowling around the territory as a second Claude Duval, has been arrested. He is under bonds to appear before an Idaho court, and his father, who is endeavoring to have him placed in the reformatory school.

Before Commissioner Goodwin.

John Thomas appeared before Commissioner Goodwin Monday and waived examination on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. He was bound over in the sum of $2,000.

The alleged plural wife, Carrie C. Jensen, was bound over on the charge of fornication, her bonds being fixed at $500.

Notes.

The cow pasture meeting will be held next Monday at 1 p. m.

The Logan city council will meet in regular session to-morrow evening.

The beautiful overture arranged for "Norma" played by the Thatcher opera house orchestra Saturday night, was beautiful indeed, and highly appreciated.

There is a healthy turn in the real estate market.
